HHC/Rules/CPADR/05-II.— In exercise of the powers conferred by Section 89 (2)(d) and Part-X of the Code of Civil Procedure, 1908, the High Court of Himachal Pradesh is pleased to make following amendments in Part-II of the High Court of Himachal Pradesh Civil Procedure Alternative Dispute Resolution and Mediation Rules 2005.

1. Short title and commencement:-

- i. These Rules shall be called “High Court of Himachal Pradesh Civil Procedure Alternative Dispute Resolution and Mediation (3rd Amendment-2015) Rules, 2005”
- ii. These Rules shall come into force from the date of publication in the official gazette, which term includes e-gazette of the State of Himachal Pradesh.

2. Amendments:

The existing Part-II, “Civil Procedure Mediation Rules”, shall stand deleted and substituted by new Part-II “Mediation Rules” as under:

Rule 1.—Title: These Rules in Part-II shall be called “The Mediation Rules, 2005”

Rule 2.

Functions of the Mediation Centre:

- i. The Mediation Centre shall maintain a panel of trained Mediators sufficient in number to meet the requirement of work referred to it.
- ii. On the receipt of matter by way of referral for mediation, the co-ordinator of the Mediation Centre may assign it to any Mediator whom he considers best suited to deal with the matter, from the panel of Mediators maintained by the Mediation Centre.
- iii. The mediation shall not be limited only to the issues involved in the referred dispute and the Mediator may also take into account all other disputes between the parties to a case which are not the subject of the pending litigation and may resolve all of them.
- iv. The counsels of the parties can also participate in the mediation process.
- v. In appropriate cases, the Mediation Centre may invite any person or persons, other than the parties to a case including an expert pertaining to any field, to join the mediation with a view to evolve a comprehensive and complete solutions of the disputes.
- vi. If any party to the dispute referred to the mediation, has any objection to the Mediator assigned to it, it shall inform the Mediation Centre of the same.

Thereafter, the coordinator of the Mediation Centre shall take steps to appoint a Mediator who is acceptable to all the parties.

Rule 3.Appointment of Mediator:

- i. In a court annexed Mediation, the Co-ordinator of the Mediation Centre shall appoint the Mediator as he may deem fit in the facts and circumstances of the dispute referred.
- ii. In exceptional cases, the Court may appoint a Mediator who is not necessarily on the panel of trained Mediators referred to in Rule 4 nor bear the requisite qualifications prescribed in Rule 5 provided he does not suffer from any of the disqualifications referred to in Rule 6.

Rule 4.Panel of Mediators:

- i. The High Court shall empanel only those persons as Mediators who possess necessary qualifications as prescribed in Rule 5. It shall also prepare a list of such Mediators empanelled with the Mediation Centre of the High Court.
- ii. Every District Court shall also prepare a panel of qualified Mediators with the prior approval of the High Court Mediation Committee.
- iii. All the Mediators as appointed under Clause (i) and Clause (ii) above, shall remain on the panel for a period of three years from the date of appointment. However, the High Court Mediation Committee, shall have the discretion to extend the tenure of any of the Mediator beyond three years.

Rule 5.Qualifications of persons to be empanelled as Mediators under Rule 3:

The following persons are eligible for training as Mediators:

- i. Retired Judges of the Supreme Court of India.
- ii. Retired Judges of the High Court.
- iii. Retired District and Sessions Judges or retired Judges of the Courts of equivalent status.
- iv. Judicial Officers of the Higher Judicial Service.
- v. Legal practitioners with at least five years standing at the Bar at the level of the Supreme Court or the High Court or the District Court or equivalent status.
- vi. Experts or other professional with at least 15 years standing or retired senior bureaucrats or retired senior executives.

Rule 6Disqualification of persons for appointment as Mediators:

The following persons shall be deemed to be disqualified for being empanelled as Mediators:

- i. Any person who has been adjudged as insolvent.
- ii. Any person against whom criminal charges involving moral turpitude are framed by a criminal court and are pending.
- iii. Any person who has been convicted by a criminal court for an offence involving moral turpitude.
- iv. Any person against whom disciplinary proceedings have been initiated by the appropriate disciplinary authority which are pending or have resulted in a punishment.

- v. Any person who is interested or connected with the subject matter of dispute(s) or is related to any one of the parties or to those who represent them unless such objection is waived by all the parties in writing.
- vi. Any legal practitioner who has or is appearing for any of the parties, in the suit or other proceedings.

Rule 7.Addition/deletion of names from the panel:

The performance of the Mediators shall be assessed periodically. The High Court or the concerned District & Sessions Judge, with the prior approval of the High Court Mediation Committee may in its/his discretion add or delete from time to time, any person in the panel of Mediators.

Rule 8.Preference:

While nominating any person from the panel of Mediators, the co-ordinator of the Mediation Centre shall consider the suitability of the said person in resolving the dispute(s) involved and shall give preference to those who have good record of successful mediation or who have special qualification or experience in the field.

However, the nomination per-se does not confer a right on the Mediator to mediate. Such nomination shall always be at the discretion of the co-ordinator of the Mediation Centre.

Rule 9.Duty of Mediator to disclose certain facts:

- i. When a person is approached in connection with his proposed appointment as a Mediator he shall be duty bound to disclose any circumstance within his knowledge which may give rise to a reasonable doubt as to his independence or impartiality.
- ii. Every Mediator shall also disclose to the parties without delay any fact or circumstance referred to in Clause (i) which comes to his notice from the time of his appointment and throughout the continuation of the mediation proceedings.

Rule 10.Withdrawal of appointment:

On the information of the Mediator furnished by him under Rule 9 or on the basis of information received from the parties or any other person, if the Court in which the suit or proceeding is pending or the co-ordinator of the Mediation Centre, is satisfied that the said information has raised a reasonable doubt as to the independence and impartiality of the Mediator, the Court or the Coordinator as the case may be, may withdraw the appointment of the said Mediator and replace him by another Mediator.

Rule 11.Mediation Process:

- i. All civil and criminal compoundable cases, during the course of litigation, may be referred by the Court for mediation.

- ii. The mediation process shall comprise of reference of the Court as well as the steps taken and the procedure followed by the Mediator to facilitate the settlement of the referred matter including but not limited to introduction and opening statement, joint session, separate session(s) and closing.
- iii. The failure to arrive at a settlement will not preclude the Court from again sending the matter for mediation.
- iv. In case of failure of resolution of the referred dispute, the Mediator shall inform the Mediation Centre by filing a report. The co-ordinator of the Mediation Centre shall forward the same to the Court which has sent the referral.

Rule 12Procedure to be followed:

While conducting proceedings, the Mediator shall not be bound by the provisions of Code of Civil Procedure, 1908 or the Indian Evidence Act, but shall be guided by the Principles of fairness and justice with due regard to the rights and obligations of the parties, custom and usages of trade if any, and the facts of the dispute(s).

Rule 13.Representation of the parties :

The parties shall ordinarily remain present either personally or through their duly constituted attorneys at the sessions notified by the Mediator. However, the Mediator may permit a counsel of the party to represent it, in such sessions.

Rule 14Failure to appear at the sessions notified by the Mediator:

If any party intentionally fails to attend a session notified by the Mediator, the other party or the Mediator may intimate this absence to the Court in which the suit or the proceeding is pending. The Court having regard to the facts and circumstances of the case, may then pass an appropriate directions in this regard.

Rule 15Administrative assistance:

In order to facilitate the conduct of mediation proceedings, the parties or with their consent, the Mediator may arrange for administrative assistance by a suitable institution or person.

Rule 16Role of Mediator:

The Mediator shall assist the parties in understanding the problems, identifying the underlying issues, reduce misunderstandings, generating and developing options mutually acceptable to all the parties. He shall make sincere efforts to facilitate voluntarily resolution of the dispute(s) by the parties.

Rule 17The parties alone to take decision:

The Mediator shall make it clear to the parties that he is mere a facilitator in arriving at a decision to resolve dispute(s) between them and he will not and cannot impose any settlement upon them. He will not give any assurance that the mediation will result in a settlement nor he shall impose any decision on the parties.

Rule 18

Time limit for completion of Mediation:

On the expiry of ninety days from the date fixed for first appearance of the parties before the Mediator, the mediation shall stand terminated unless the court which has sent the referral, either of its own or on the request of any of the parties and upon hearing all of them is of the view that extension of time is necessary or may be useful, but this extension shall not be beyond a further period of thirty days.

Rule 19

Parties to act in good faith:

All the parties shall commit to participate in the proceedings in good faith with intention to settle the dispute(s), if possible.

Rule 20

Confidentiality disclosure and inadmissibility of information:

- (i) Whenever, a Mediator receives any factual information concerning the dispute from any of the party, he shall disclose the substance of it to the other party in order to enable it to present such explanation as the said party may consider appropriate.

Provided that when a party gives information to the Mediator subject to a specific condition that it may be kept confidential, in that eventuality, the Mediator shall not disclose it to the other party.

- (ii) The receipt or perusal of any document or any sort of information orally by the Mediator, while serving in that capacity shall be confidential and the Mediator shall not be compelled to reveal the information regarding the document, record or oral information or regarding what transpired during the Mediation.
- (iii) The parties shall also maintain confidentiality in respect of events having been taken place during the mediation process and shall not rely on or bring the said information in any proceedings as to:
 - (a) Views expressed by a party in the course of mediation proceedings.
 - (b) The contents of such documents produced during mediation which were expressly required to be treated as confidential including other notes, drafts or information supplied by the parties to the Mediators.
 - (c) Admission made by a party in the course of Mediation proceedings.
 - (d) The fact that any party did or didn't indicate its willingness to accept a proposal.
 - (e) The proposal made or views expressed by the Mediator.
- (iv) The Mediator or any of the parties shall not be allowed to prepare stenographic, audio or video record of the proceedings conducted before the Mediator. However, a Mediator may maintain for his own personal record regarding the progress of the mediation for his personal use.

Rule 21Privacy:

The Mediation sessions shall be conducted in complete privacy and only the parties or power of attorneys or their counsel, can attend such sessions. Other persons may be permitted by the Mediator to attend the session with the consent of the parties.

Rule 22Immunity:

No Mediator shall be held liable for civil or criminal action for anything bonafidely done or omitted to be done by him during the mediation process, nor shall he be summoned by any party to the suit or proceeding to appear in a court of law to testify in regard to the information received by him or action taken by him or in respect of drafts or records prepared by him or shown to him during the mediation proceedings.

Rule 23Communication between the Mediator and the Court:

- I. In order to preserve the confidence of parties in the court and the neutrality of the Mediator, there should be no communication between the Mediator and the Court except as provided in these rules.
- II. If any communication between the Mediator and the Court is necessary then the same shall be in writing and copies of the same shall be given to the parties or their duly constituted attorneys or their counsel.
- III. All communication between the mediator and the Court shall be made only by the Mediators and in respect of the following matters:--
 - (a) Failure of a party or parties to attend.
 - (b) The Mediators' assessment that the case is not suited for settlement through mediation; or
 - (c) Settlement of dispute or disputes arrived at between the parties.

Rule 24Settlement agreement:

Where an agreement is reached between the parties with regard to all the issues or some of the issues involved in the suit or proceeding, the same shall be reduced into writing and signed by the parties or their duly constituted attorneys. If the counsel has represented the parties, the Mediator may obtain his signatures also on the settlement agreements.

- I. The agreement of the parties, referred to above, shall be submitted to the co-ordinator of the mediation center who shall with a covering letter signed by him forward it to the Court which has sent the referral and in which the suit or proceeding is pending.
- II. Where no agreement is arrived at between the parties or where the Mediator is of the view that the settlement is not possible, he shall report it in writing to the co-ordinator of the Mediation Centre who shall with a covering letter signed by him forward the same to the Court in which the suit or proceeding is pending.

Rule 25The court to record settlement and pass decree:

On the receipt of settlement agreement, if the court is satisfied that the parties have amicably settled their dispute(s), it may pass decree or appropriate order on its basis if the same is not found collusive, illegal or unworkable. However, if the settlement disposed of only certain issues involved in the dispute, the court may record settlement in respect of the issues settled in the mediation and may proceed to decide the remaining issues. The settlement between the parties shall be final in respect of the proceedings pending before the Court.

Rule 26Fee of the Mediator

i. The Mediators shall be paid honorarium as under:--

S. No.	Nature of case	Honorarium
1	On settlement through mediation of a matrimonial case [including criminal], custody, guardianship, probate, partition and possession.	Rs. 3000/- per case [with two or more connected cases, the maximum would be Rs. 4000/-]
2.	All other matters	Rs. 2000/- per case [with two or more connected cases, the maximum would be Rs. 3000/-]
3.	Connected case	Rs. 500/- per cause subject to a maximum of Rs. 1000/- [regardless of the number of connected cases]
4.	In case of no settlement	No honorarium

However, the quantum of honorarium shall be subject to revision from time to time as deemed fit by the High Court Mediation Committee.

- ii. In exceptional cases, however, the Court may fix a consolidated amount as fee of the Court nominated Mediator(s).
- iii. The parties shall bear the cost for production of their witnesses and the expert, if any, as also for the production of documents during the mediation process.

Rule 27Ethics and Code of Conduct for the Mediator

The Mediator shall observe the following Rules strictly and with due diligence:--

- i. He shall not indulge in conduct unbecoming of a Mediator.
- ii. He shall uphold the fairness and integrity of the mediation process.
- iii. He shall ensure that the parties involved in the mediation are well informed and have a proper understanding of the procedural aspects of the mediation process.
- iv. He shall avoid any impropriety or semblance thereof while communicating with the parties.

- v. The Mediator shall not mediate in such cases where he has direct, personal, professional or financial interest in the outcome of the dispute. If the Mediator has any indirect interest, it shall be obligatory for him to disclose this fact to the parties at the earliest opportunity and he shall not mediate unless the parties specifically agree of his continuing as a Mediator despite his such indirect interest.
- vi. Where the Mediator happens to be an advocate, he shall not appear before the Court for any of the parties in respect of such dispute which he had mediated.
- vii. The Mediator must know the limits of his competence and ability in order to avoid accepting assignment which he is not equipped to handle.
- viii. He shall remain totally neutral throughout the mediation process.
- ix. He must respect the voluntary nature of mediation and recognize the rights of the parties to withdraw from the mediation process at any stage.
- x. He shall maintain total confidentiality regarding the mediation process.
- xi. The Mediator has a duty to encourage the parties to make their own decision individually as well as collectively regarding the resolution of the dispute and shall not impose his own ideas on them.
- xii. The settlement of dispute by way of mediation must be based on informed consent.
- xiii. He shall conduct the mediation proceedings in accordance with the law.
- xiv. He shall refrain from extending promises to the parties or guarantee the result of mediation process.

Rule 28

Consequences of breach of Rule 27

The Coordinator of the Mediation Centre may take such action with the prior approval of the High Court Mediation Committee as he considers appropriate if the Mediator violates any Code of Conduct stipulated in Rule 27 or acts in a manner not expected of him as a Mediator.
